

10

Charlie Rutlage

*(from Cowboy Songs)

Charles Ives

mp

(In moderate time)

An - oth - er good cow-punch-er has gone to meet his fate, I hope he'll find a rest - ing place, with - in the gol - den gate, the gol - den gate. An -

4

8

-oth - er place is va - cant on the ranch of the X I T, 'Twil be hard to find an - oth - er that's

11

mf f

liked as well as he. The first that died was Kid White, a man both tough and

mf f

15

p

brave, — While Char-lie Rut-lag makes the third to be sent — to his grave, Caused —

p

3

21

f faster (half spoken) recite - following the piano

by a cow-horse fall-ing while run-ning af - ter stock; 'Twas on the spring round up, A faster

f (octs. ad lib.)

24

(hold back) ff fast

place where death men mock, He went for - ward one morn - ing on a

(hold back here) fast

ff

26

cir - cle through the hills, He was gay and full of glee, and 8

3

28

free from earth - ly ills; But when it came to fin - ish up the work on which he went, Noth - ing came back from him; his time on earth was spent. 'Twas

8 3

30

(a little slower) (fast again)

3

33 ff

as he rode the round up, a XIT turned back to the herd; Poor Char - lie shoved him in a - gain, his

ff

faster and faster, louder and louder -

36

cut - ting horse he spurred; An - oth - er turned; at that mo - ment his faster and faster - - - - - fff louder and louder - - - - -

fff

38

horse the crea-ture spied and turned and fell with him, be-neath poor char-lie died, His mp slower p fff mp loco slower p

tr fists* r.h. l.h. 8 3

6

42 as in the beginning

re-la-tions in Tex-as his face nev-er more will see, But I hope he'll meet his loved ones be-about the time at the beginning 46

-yond in e-ter-ni-ty in 47

e-ter-ni-ty I hope he'll meet his par-ents, will meet them face to face, And that they'll

3

50 mf pp

grasp him by the right hand at the shin-ing throne, the shin - ing throne, the shin-ing throne of grace.

mf pp

*In these measures the notes are indicated only approximately; the time of course, in the main point.