Soliloquy of an old man whose son lies in "Flanders Fields"
It is the day after the election; he is sitting by the roadside,
Looking down the valley towards the station.

Kick him out! Kick him out! Kick him out! Kick him out! kick him!

The first system of the musical score consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written in a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains five measures of music, each corresponding to the lyrics 'Kick him out!'. The piano accompaniment is written in two staves (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one sharp. It features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand.

The second system continues the musical score. The vocal line has a more complex melody with some grace notes and a long note on 'Slide'. The piano accompaniment includes a forte (f) dynamic marking and a trill in the bass line at the end of the system.

The third system concludes the musical score. The vocal line features a long note on 'id'. The piano accompaniment includes a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking and continues with a steady bass line and chords in the right hand.

Note: The assumption, in the text, that the result of our national election in 1920, was a definite indication, that the country, (at least, the majority-mind) turned its back on a high purpose is not conclusive. Unfortunately election returns coming through the present party system prove nothing conclusively. The voice of the people sounding through the mouth of the parties, becomes somewhat emasculated. It is not inconceivable that practical ways may be found for more accurately registering and expressing popular thought—at least, in relation to the larger primary problems, which concern us all. A suggestion to this end (if we may be forgiven a further digression) in the form of a constitutional amendment together with an article discussing the plan in some detail and from various aspects, will be gladly sent, by the writer, to any one who is interested enough to write for it.
