

Naught that Country needeth

(1899)

Aria for Baritone (from a Cantata, "The Celestial Country")

Alford
from St. Bernard

Moderato

The musical score is for an Aria for Baritone, titled "Naught that Country needeth". It is in common time (C) and the key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The tempo is marked "Moderato". The score is divided into three systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment.

System 1: The vocal line begins with a whole rest. The piano accompaniment starts with a melody in the right hand, marked mf (mezzo-forte), and a bass line in the left hand. The key signature changes to one flat (B-flat) after the first measure.

System 2: The vocal line begins with a whole rest. The piano accompaniment continues. The vocal line enters with the lyrics "Naught that coun - try" on a dotted quarter note, marked mf. The piano accompaniment has a triplet in the left hand. The key signature changes to one sharp (F-sharp) after the first measure.

System 3: The vocal line begins with a whole rest. The piano accompaniment continues. The vocal line enters with the lyrics "need - - eth of these aisles of stone;" on a dotted quarter note, marked mp (mezzo-piano). The piano accompaniment has a triplet in the left hand. The key signature changes to one sharp (F-sharp) after the first measure.
