Hymn

Dr. Collyer recalls an interesting passage between Ralph Waldo Emerson and Oliver Wendell Holmes. The latter said that many of the hymns in use were mere pieces of cabinet work. Then his voice deepened and his eyes shone, as they did in his noblest moments, and he said, "One hymn I think supreme." Emerson threw back his head and waited, while Dr. Holmes repeated the text of the following song. Emerson responded: "I know that is the supreme hymn. 'I shall be satisfied when I awake in Thy likeness.'" quoted from Prof. Shutter's Chapter "The God of Evolution" in his essays "Applied Evolution." Universalist Pub. Co.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 4/4 time, marked with a piano (p) dynamic. The piano part features a series of chords and moving lines in both hands. The vocal part enters at measure 6 with the lyrics "Thou hid - den". The piano accompaniment continues with a steady rhythm, marked with pp and ppp dynamics. The vocal part continues with the lyrics "love of God, whose height, whose depth, un - fath - omed, no man knows, — I see from". The piano part concludes with a final chord in 5/4 time, marked with l.h. (left hand).
