The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a tempo and mood instruction 'Slowly and sustained'. The key signature has one flat (B-flat major or D minor). The score is divided into systems. The first system shows the vocal line starting with a rest, followed by the lyrics 'I think there must be a place in the soul all made of tunes, of'. The piano accompaniment starts with a rest, then enters with a series of chords and moving lines. The second system continues the vocal line with 'tunes of long a - go; I hear the or - gan on the Main Street cor - ner, Aunt'. The piano accompaniment features a prominent organ-like melody in the right hand. The third system has the vocal line singing 'Sa - rah hum-ming Gos - pels; Sum - mer eve - nings, The'. The piano accompaniment continues with a similar organ-like texture. The fourth system begins with a tempo change instruction 'faster and with more emphasis' and the vocal line singing 'vil-lage cor-net band, play - ing in the square. The town's Red, White and Blue,'. The piano accompaniment becomes more rhythmic and active, reflecting the 'excited way' instruction. The score ends with a triplet of eighth notes in the vocal line.
